What are the ten books or plays that you'd like to read (performances you'd like to attend) over the next year, including over vacation breaks?

MAKE A PLAN TO READ EACH BOOK OR PLAY
(or attend a play performance)

Will you buy those books or plays? Borrow them from the library? Will you read the play? Attend a performance? Write down the target date to read each book or play (or attend a performance). Check off when you've done it.

Sharing Thoughts

Use the pages that follow to fill in your own bits of wisdom culled from the books you've read and from your own experiences and reflections.

The first pages are for you, the reader, to write on. The next sets are included if you'd like to ask your mother, father, siblings, extended family (grandparents, aunts, uncles, or cousins), teachers, or friends to add their philosophies, adages, insights, reminiscences, or maxims for you to take with you on your life's journey.

By the Student/Graduate/Reader

Fill In Any Thoughts You Would Like to Record From Your Own Reflections or Readings or What You've Learned From Your Family, Friends, or Teachers.
