<http://www.chordsoftruth.com> Before I left for "Spill the Beans" in Clemson, SC for my first time ever playing live for people on the guitar and singing. My set list was "Gods Gonna Cut You Down" by Johnny Cash, "Working Class Hero" by John Lennon, "The Gambler" by Kenny Rogers. (3/30/2011).

NOTE: For those of you that have never played out before but want to, I was freaked out and after I was done playing my hands were shaking so bad I could barely put the guitar away. But after that night it was never like that again so... My advice is to just get the first one out of the way and after that you'll be fine :) It is a blast!

What we believe.doc Open with T...

The earth has been here for a long time, and it's going to be here long after us
But for some reason many people think, that we can hurt this self correcting process

For years, the only way to get a government grant is to prove man-made climate change through CO2
What do you think the results are going to say?

The earth is fine.

Why we believe what we do?

What we believe

Is there other life in our solar system? Experts say no, but who's to say it has to be like us?

They say that time travel is impossible because you can't travel faster than light but who says it it has anything to do with that

Thinking outside the box from inside of it

While recycling is a valuable tool for sustaining our resources, so many people can do so much more with their charisma
