

02 Exodus - 2011

Skip Heitzig

Beginning in the brickyards of Egypt and ending in the tabernacle filled with God's presence, the book of Exodus chronicles the deliverance of God's people from Egypt and records the end of their oppression under Pharaoh. It also provides an account of the beginning of a prophecy fulfilled: God promised Abraham descendants beyond number, and on the pages of Exodus we see Israel become a great nation.

In this verse-by-verse study, Pastor Skip Heitzig presents an in-depth look at Moses, the ten plagues, the ten commandments, the desert wanderings, the construction of the tabernacle, and more. As we study, we'll see the grace of God, witness the glory of the Lord, and a catch a glimpse of Israel's coming Savior.

That crosses every path;

The hidden boundary between

God's patience and his wrath.

To pass that limit is to die--

To die as if by stealth;

It does not quench the beaming eye

Or pale the glow of health.

The conscience may be still at ease,

The spirit lithe and gay;

That which pleases still may please,

And care be thrust away.

But on that forehead God has set.

Indelibly a mark

Unseen by men, for men as yet

Are blind and in the dark.

Oh, where is this mysterious bourn

By which each path is crossed?

Beyond which God himself hath sworn

That he who goes is lost?

How far may we go on in sin?

How long will God forbear?

Where does hope end, and where begin

The confines of despair?

The answer from the skies is sent,

'Ye that from God depart,

While it is called today, repent,

And harden not your heart!" — J. A. Alexander

Emancipation -- to free from bondage, oppression or restraint; to liberate. In Exodus 13-14, a portrait of deliverance is painted; as God's people were set free from bondage in Egypt, so we are redeemed in Jesus Christ. Let's look closely to gain a greater understanding of our freedom from sin and our new life in Him.

When the children of Israel were delivered from bondage in Egypt and their enemies were destroyed, they responded with songs of praise. As we review Exodus 15, we'll consider the songs of Moses and Miriam and learn some important characteristics of true worship.

- I. Introduction
 - A. The wonder of the miracle of deliverance from bondage was eclipsed by the weary of the journey: the people will complain
 - B. Prior to complaining the children of Israel sing a worship song: a celebration of deliverance
 - I. God led them with a pillar of fire by night and p of cloud by day
 - 2. God did not take them the direct route: northern "way of the Philistines"
 - 3. God led them south and away from the Promised Land
 - 4. He led them into a trap
 - a. The Red Sea in front of them
 - b. Impassable wilderness and mountainous terrain at their sides
 - c. The Egyptians behind them
 - C. We learn in tight places
 - 1. Tight places reveal our character and our relationship to God
 - a. The children of Israel complained: "Is this not the word that we told you in Egypt, saying, 'Let us alone that we may serve the Egyptians?' For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than that we should die in the wilderness." (Exodus 14:12)
 - b. The children of Israel had a lack of faith
 - c. Moses had faith: "And Moses said to the people, 'Do not be afraid. Stand still, and see the salvation of the Lord, which He will accomplish for you today. For the Egyptians whom you see today, you shall see again no more forever. The Lord will fight for you, and you shall hold your peace." (Exodus 14:13-14)
 - d. Moses had faith
 - 2. Tight places remind us that God doesn't punch our time clock
 - a. He's not on our schedule
 - b. He is not our servant.
 - c. God opens and closes the Red Sea: He fixes the problem according to His perfect timing.

- c. Tight places foster dependence on God
 - a. Only way to look is up
 - b. Hardships get your attention like it or not
 - c. "God whispers to us in our pleasures...but shouts in our pains: it is His megaphoneto rouse a deaf world." C. S. Lewis
- D. After they are delivered from Egypt and see their enemy dead on the sea shore, we have the first song recorded in the Bible
 - 0. Deep emotion is often expressed artistically
 - 1. Moses apparently wrote this song and sang it together with the Israelites
 - 2. Miriam will dance with other women
 - 3. "And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and deeds." (Acts 7:22)
 - a. Moses may not have been good at extemporaneous speaking in front of a crowd or the king
 - b. Wrote poetry: "A Prayer of Moses the man of God." (Psalm 90:1)
- E. Hebrew Poetry
 - 0. Not rhyming words, but rhyming thoughts (parallelism)
 - I. Synthetic or synonymous parallelism: states a thought and another thought that is almost the same. (i.e., "Lenya is an amazing woman; the greatest among women is Lenya.")
 - 2. The second thought is stated differently and amplified.
- II. Characteristics of True Worship
 - A. Worship is a response
 - 0. "Then" (v. I): after God delivered them from the Red Sea
 - There was no song in Egypt: only signing, crying, and groaning
 - b. "Then the children of Israel groaned because of the bondage, and they cried out; and their cry came up to God because of the bondage." (Exodus 2:23)
 - c. God turned their sighing into singing: because of the blood of the Lamb and the power of God.
 - I. Biblical definition of worship
 - a. Worship is a response to God: "We love Him because He first loved us." (1 John 4:19)
 - b. Worship is the proper response to God: "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service." (Romans 12:1)
 - c. Worship is the proper response to God that comes from the heart: "But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth; for the Father is seeking such to worship Him." (John 4:23)
 - d. Worship is the proper response to God that comes from the heart whereby we place God above everyone and everything else: "Jesus said to him, 'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. 38 This is the first and great commandment." (Matthew 22:37-38)

 - a. Tell Him how awesome He is, that we love Him, and why
 - b. "I'm coming back to the heart of worship, and it's all about you Jesus"-Matt Redmond
 - c. "Most people think of the church as a drama with the minister as the chief actor, God as the prompter, and the laity as the critic. What is actually the case is that the congregation is the chief actor, the minister is the prompter, and God is the critic." -Dr. D. James Kennedy

As we turn our attention to the precepts of God's Law, we remember that it serves as a tutor leading us to Christ. Let's consider how God's Law applies to our lives, remembering we cannot have a relationship with the Lord based upon the Law--only upon redemption through Jesus Christ.

- I. Introduction
 - A. Psalm 19: the doorway to Exodus 21
 - I. General revelation
 - a. God reveals Himself through nature
 - b. The big book of the universe
 - c. We see some of the attributes of God
 - d. "To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David. The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament shows His handiwork. Day unto day utters speech, and night unto night reveals knowledge. There is no speech nor language where their voice is not heard. Their line has gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them He has set a tabernacle for the sun, which is like a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoices like a strong man to run its race. Its rising is from one end of heaven, and its circuit to the other end; and there is nothing hidden from its heat." (Psalm 19:1-6)
 - 2. Special revelation
 - a. God reveals Himself through Scripture
 - b. The little book of the Bible
 - c. We understand Who God is
 - d. "The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul; The testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple; The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart; The commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes; The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever; The judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether. More to be desired are they than gold, Yea, than much fine gold; Sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb" (Psalm 19:7-10).
 - B. Exodus 21: the judgments, statutes, testimonies—the particulars of the Law
 - I. Move from the principles in the Ten Commandments to their application in everyday life
 - 2. The expansion of the Decalogue

- C. Behind the Law of the Lord is the Lord of the Law
 - I. Law given to protect and govern
 - 2. Happiness comes from holiness: "Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stands in the path of sinners, nor sits in the seat of the scornful; But his delight is in the law of the Lord, and in His law he meditates day and night." (Psalm 1:1-2)
 - 3. Relationship with Christ is the end of the Law: "For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes" (Romans 10:4).
 - 4. Law serves as a tutor or schoolmaster:
 - a. "Therefore the law was our tutor to bring us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after faith has come, we are no longer under a tutor" (Galatians 3:24)
 - παιδαγωγὸς; paidagōgos a boy's guardian or tutor, a slave who had charge of the life and morals of the boys of a family, not strictly a teacher
- D. We often experience a cultural and historical disconnect, but there are principles we can apply: "Now all these things happened to them as examples, and they were written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the ages have come" (I Corinthians 10:11).
- II. The laws of servitude
 - A. Male slaves

 - ii. Under the servitude of the devil nearly 6000 years
 - iii. Last 1000 years the millennial
 - iv. Be careful playing with numbers
 - v. Always be ready: "But of that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, but My Father only" (Matthew 24:36).
 - 3. Servant may choose not to go free because of the wife given by the master

 - I. Rooted in Genesis: "Whoever sheds man's blood, by man his blood shall be shed; for in the image of God He made man" (Genesis 9:6).
 - 2. Capital punishment is not murder: it is righteously administered judicial execution
 - a. On a personal level, we must forgive: "But whoever slaps you on your right cheek, turn the other to him also" (Matthew 5:39).
 - b. On a societal level, there are laws to protect life.
- B. Purpose
 - I. If administered swiftly, deterrent to crime
 - a. According to Professor Van Den Haag, 99% of actual murderers prefer life imprisonment to death. "What is feared most deters most."
 - b. According to Professor Steven Lawson of the University of North Carolina, "Every execution of a murderer deters, on average, eighteen murders that would have occurred without it."
 - 2. Not retribution, but restitution
 - a. When blood is shed, the land is defiled: "Whoever kills a person, the murderer shall be put to death on the testimony of witnesses; but one witness is not sufficient testimony against a person for the death penalty. Moreover you shall take no ransom for the life of a murderer who is guilty of death, but he shall surely be put to death. And you shall take no ransom for him who has fled to his city of refuge, that he may return to dwell in the land before the death of the priest. So you shall not pollute the land where you are; for blood defiles the land, and no atonement can be made for the land, for the blood that is shed on it, except by the blood of him who shed it. Therefore do not defile the land which you inhabit, in the midst of which I dwell; for I the Lord dwell among the children of Israel'" (Numbers 33:30-34).

- b. Paul validates the Old Testament law in the New Testament: "For if I am an offender, or have committed anything deserving of death, I do not object to dying;" (Acts 25:11).

- IV. Compensation for injury
 - A. Violence against slaves prohibited
 - B. Lex Talionis: law of exact retribution; the punishment matches the crime
 - I. Human nature bent on revenge: e.g., Lamach said, "For I have killed a man for wounding me, even a young man for hurting me. If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold, Then Lamech seventy-sevenfold" (Genesis 4:23-24).
 - 2. This merciful law limits violence
- V. The Law of the Lord and the Lord of the Law

 - 2. Stop honoring life, marriage, etc. when you depart from God
 - C. "Who can understand his errors? Cleanse me from secret faults. Keep back Your servant also from presumptuous sins; Let them not have dominion over me. Then I shall be blameless, and I shall be innocent of great transgression. Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Your sight, O Lord, my strength and my Redeemer" (Psalm 19:12-14)
 - 1. From the far reaches of space to the familiar reaches of his own heart

By these regulations the Holy Spirit revealed that the Most Holy Place was not open to the people as long as the first room and the entire system it represents were still in use. This is an illustration pointing to the present time. For the gifts and sacrifices that the priests offer are not able to cleanse the consciences of the people who bring them. For that old system deals only with food and drink and ritual washing -- external regulations that are in effect only until their limitations can be corrected. So Christ has now become the High Priest over all the good things that have come. He has entered that great, perfect sanctuary in heaven, not made by human hands and not part of this created world.  - A. Moses, with glowing face, oversaw the building of the Tabernacle; glow was temporary
 - B. "But if the ministry of death, written and engraved on stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not look steadily at the face of Moses because of the glory of his countenance, which glory was passing away, how will the ministry of the Spirit not be more glorious? For if the ministry of condemnation had glory, the ministry of righteousness exceeds much more in glory. For even what was made glorious had no glory in this respect, because of the glory that excels. For if what is passing away was glorious, what remains is much more glorious. Therefore, since we have such hope, we use great boldness of speech-- unlike Moses, who put a veil over his face so that the children of Israel could not look steadily at the end of what was passing away. But their minds were blinded. For until this day the same veil remains unlifted in the reading of the Old Testament, because the veil is taken away in Christ. But even to this day, when Moses is read, a veil lies on their heart. Nevertheless when one turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away. Now the Lord is the Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. But we all, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as by the Spirit of the Lord." (2 Corinthians 3:7-18)
