

Life

IS A

Gift

THE ZEN OF BENNETT

Tony Bennett

Photographs

My brother, John,
was a wonderful child opera singer—
and a great dresser!

Courtesy of the author

John and me, all “suited up”
in 1941 in Astoria, Queens.

Courtesy of the author

I gave this little boy food from my Army rations right after this photo was taken in Wiesbaden, Germany, during World War II.

Courtesy of the author

Singing with the quartet from the 255th Regiment Band.

Courtesy of the author

With my Army buddies, the brothers Freddie and Stan Katz.

Courtesy of the author

With my mom, all dressed up in our
Easter Sunday best.

Courtesy of the author

I got a chance to see
Maurice Chevalier
when I was just a kid growing up in Queens—what an absolute inspiration
he was for me
as a performer.

Courtesy of the author

I loved the fact that John Mayer wore a suit to our recording session—and he is a wonderful blues singer. Courtesy of the author

There is no better inspiration for art than studying nature.
Courtesy of the author

Artwork

The Duke Ellington Orchestra

Musician, The Pearl Bailey Show

Musician (Bass)

San Francisco

My Mom

Ralph Sharon

Dick Hyman

Duke Ellington—Black Rain

Count Basie Band

Fred Astaire

The South of France

Rosemary Clooney

Carmen McRae at the Blue Note, May '90

Frank Sinatra

Lady Gaga

FLYING BACK TO NEW YORK

ORDER WORKSHEET
APRIL 6TH

MARALAGU
DOWN
VIZUAL

Danny Bennett Meditating

Jazz

John Heard

Louis by Bennett

K.D. LANG (REHEARSING)

k.d. lang (rehearsing)

Charlie Chaplin

Lady Gaga

Sinatra

Triborough Bridge From Astoria, June '86

San Francisco

Beneville

*Inn on the Park
London England*

London

Self-Portrait

Bill Evans

Susan

JON BURR

Jon Burr

Ronnie White

Clifford Brown

Untitled

LEE MUSIKER
MAESTRO
(PIANO)

HAROLD JONES
DRUMS
(MR. TIME)

GRAY
SARGENT
THE "PUCCINI" OF GUITAR

MARSHALL WOOD
BASS -

My Quartet: Lee, Harold, Gray, and Marshall

Self-Portrait