1

DANISH

1. Hans: Vi er godt i gang med hovedretten. Mums mums!
2. Johanne: Er da slet ikke misundelig...
3. Isak: Hvor var min invitation?
4. Frederikke: Det ser hyggeligt ud.
5. Gitte: Velbekomme!

ENGLISH

1. Hans: We are well under way with the main course. Yum yum!
2. Johanne: Not envious at all...
3. Isak: Where was my invitation?
4. Frederikke: It looks cozy.
5. Gitte: Bon appétit!

VOCABULARY

Danish	English	Class
slet ikke	not at all	phrase
misundelig	envious	adjective
invitation	invitation	noun
se ud	look	phrase

hyggelig	cozy, enjoyable, homely	adjective
velbekomme	bon appetit	interjection
hovedret	main course	noun

VOCABULARY PHRASE USAGE

Danish	English	About this Expression
Vi er godt i gang med hovedretten.	We are well under way with the main course.	This phrase is used when you're off to a good start with your meal and are under way with the main course. Of course, you can replace "main course" with other nouns or actions.
Mums mums!	Yum yum!	This is a phrase used to express that something is yummy, such as food and drinks. It's mostly used by small children; so if you're saying it as an adult to other adults, you're clearly trying to be funny. But if it's not clear that you're joking, things can easily get really awkward. You might also be trying to make people jealous in a teasing tone if you refer to a picture of food you posted online.
