

TEST OF PERSONAL ETHICS AND INTEGRITY

Developed by William D. Brown, Ph.D., and Discussed on Side Three

TEST YOUR INTEGRITY LEVEL

Fill in each blank with a 5, 4, 3, 2 or 1, using the following scale:

5 = strongly agree; 4 = agree; 3 = uncertain; 2 = disagree; 1 = strongly disagree.

1. I don't give in to the temptation to pad my expense accounts. _____
 2. I do a full day's work for a full day's pay. _____
 3. I never take office items—even small ones—for personal or family use. _____
 4. If my fellow workers were as honest as I, our company would never have to worry about white-collar crime. _____
 5. Those who know me consider my word my bond. _____
 6. "Loyal and faithful friend" is one way my friends would describe me. _____
 7. Recognizing how readily we influence the behavior of others, I strive to set a good example in all my endeavors. _____
 8. Each day, I work at remaining honest in all interactions, both in and out of the office. _____
 9. If my spouse's emotional and physical fidelity were equal to mine, I would be satisfied. _____
 10. In general, my approach toward others—both at home and away from home—is to treat them the way I would like to be treated. _____
- TOTAL _____

You should score this test as follows:

44-50 — Excellent. You are undoubtedly a winner.

37-43 — Good. But there's room for improvement.

0-36 — Poor. Your integrity is sadly lacking.

Reprinted from Being the Best by Denis Waitley.