

Reading Group Guide

Spoiler alert!

Don't read before completing Angel Eyes.

1. Brielle knows what it's like to lose a loved one. Has this ever happened to you or someone you know? How did you cope?
2. At the beginning of this novel, Brielle feels very much alone. In truth, she has a great support system: her dad, Kaylee, Miss Macy, Mr. Burns. Do you have a group of people you can rely on when things get tough? Who are they?
3. Mr. Burns tells Brielle that "It's okay to be broken." Do you agree with him? What does that phrase mean to you?
4. Ali was Brielle's best friend but she was also someone Brielle admired and looked up to. Do you have a friend like that?
5. Ballet is Brielle's creative outlet. How do you channel your creativity?
6. By placing an engagement ring with Brielle's initials on it into the chest, the Throne Room seems to be indicating that Jake and Brielle will marry. Do you believe God orchestrates marriages? Can you think of a biblical example? What do you think happened to the ring at the end of the novel?

7. The halo gives Jake and Brielle different gifts: Jake the gift to heal; Brielle the gift to see. What challenges or responsibilities come with those gifts? Why do you think the halo affects them differently? If you put the halo on, what gift do you think it would give to you?
8. Jake quotes Proverbs 3:5-6. It says, “Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths.” Do you have trouble trusting what you can’t see? Do you have advice for someone who does?
9. Brielle’s father is adamantly against anything religious. How do you think he’ll react to Brielle’s new beliefs? Is there someone in your life who is adamantly against religion? How do you reach out to them?
10. Brielle is attracted to many things about Jake. Can you name a few? What do you look for in the opposite sex?
11. In this story, fear is portrayed as cold and clingy. It is portrayed as a weapon. Do you think this is an accurate representation? Have you ever felt attacked by fear? What did you do?
12. While this story is entirely fictional, the Bible speaks very clearly about the existence of angels and demons. Do you believe in guardian angels? Have you witnessed anything that would lead you to believe in their presence?
13. Brielle struggles to understand how a righteous God could let bad things happen. Have you ever wondered about this? What are your thoughts?
14. Human trafficking is a very real problem both in the United States and abroad. What are some things you can do to help?
