WORSHIP STYLE QUESTIONNAIRE

- How would you describe your worship service? Is it formal or informal? (You might even ask if they have a printed order of worship. If they do, you can ask if they would mail you the orders from the past two weeks.)
- Are there certain elements that appear in the worship service every week (such as the Lord's Prayer, the Apostle's Creed, or the reading of the Law)?
- What kind of songs do you sing in your services?
- What kind of instruments are used in your services?
- To blend in at your church, what would a man wear and what would a woman wear?

Here are some optional questions that might be a little more challenging:

- If I shouted “Amen!” during the sermon because I really agreed with something, would people stare at me?
- If I raised my hands during worship, would I stand out in the crowd?
- If I came to your church six weeks in a row, would I be able to memorize your order of worship or would you still have some surprises for me?
- My kids live in jeans and T-shirts; would they feel at home at your church?
