

WALKING IN WONDER

ETERNAL WISDOM FOR A MODERN WORLD

John O'Donohue

IN CONVERSATION WITH

John Quinn

NARRATED BY PAT O'DONOHUE | FOREWORD BY KRISTA TIPPETT

1. Introduction to Walking in Wonder
2. Foreword
3. Introduction

4. PART ONE: WONDER

5. Gateways to Wonder
6. The Animal World
7. Transience
8. Memory
9. Friendship
10. Fear
11. Light
12. Shelter
13. Imagination
14. Landscape

15. PART TWO: MEISTER ECKHART

16. A Pen Picture
17. The Idea of God
18. A Wild God
19. The Divine Presence
20. Rhythm
21. Eckhart for Today

22. PART THREE: LANDSCAPE

23. Máméan
24. Memory
25. Intrusion
26. Silence
27. Darkness
28. Wildness
29. Water

30. PART FOUR: ABSENCE

31. Absence and Loss
32. Midhir and Étaín
33. Presence
34. Alienation
35. Welcome Absence
36. False Absence
37. Memory
38. The Unknown
39. Imagination
40. Media Absence
41. Illness
42. Imprisonment
43. Emigration
44. Contemplatives
45. Absence of God
46. Death

47. PART FIVE: DAWN MASS

48. Homily
49. Blessing of the Elements
50. Prayers of the Faithful

51. PART SIX: BALANCE

52. An Exploration of Balance: The Concept of Balance in a Theory of Creation
53. Imagination
54. Imagination and the Balance with Otherness
55. The Myth of Balance
56. Balance and the Millennium
57. To Find Balance in an Ireland of Inner Turbulence

58. PART SEVEN: AGING

59. The Negative Side
60. Harvest Time
61. The Gift of Memory
62. Possibility
63. Temperament, Not Time
64. Loneliness
65. Liberation

66. PART EIGHT: DEATH

67. Coming Home
68. The Eternal World
69. The End or the Beginning?
70. Postscript
71. Afterword
72. Envoi
73. In Memoriam
74. Conclusion to Walking in Wonder